1 League in the Campaign.

With the entry of Senator John-sen, backed by a solid delegation from California, it becomes certain that the league of nations will be later to the convention floor. This eans that the convention will not means that the convention will not be able to dodge the issue, but thus ar the leaders of the republican party has shown no disposition to sedge it. On the contrary they welme it. It is their one best bet. The real meaning of the Johnson impaign is not only that the league frations is an issue, but that Gen
